INTRODUCTION

In the original Sonic Blast Man adventure, action fans had the chance to lead Sonic Blast Man on a smash 'em up quest to save the world from certain doom. Although successful in completing this objective, in this amazing sequel, Sonic Blast Man must call upon two worthy teammates, Sonia and Captain Choyear, as he is in need of their expert assistance. Trouble has arisen again! Their mission is to rid the world of a self-proclaimed superior being named Yafu, and his horde of horrible hench-monsters. Rescuing the world from these unwelcome alien-intruders is a task which is far from easy. You and your chosen character must fight your way through the urban jungle, which consists of five Stages full of thugs, tough guys and other obstacles. Because each of the three characters you can choose possesses his own unique skills, the variety of moves makes this action game an exciting and interesting challenge. Pop it in and fight for freedom!

Hovering just a few thousand miles from Earth, Yafu ponders his next evil move.

Yafu sends his hordes to eradicate parasitic humans from the face of the Earth.

Sonia, Sonic Blast Man and Captain Choyear are called upon to save the day!

GAME PLAY

GETTING STARTED

Insert the Sonic Blast Man 2 Game Pak into the Control Deck and switch the power ON. The Taito logo will appear, then the opening sequence will begin. You may watch it, or press Start to skip to the Title Screen. Press Start again to advance to the first Options Menu. First, customize your settings by choosing "Options," then select a one or two player game. Next, pick a character and press Start to get down to business.

OPTION

Use the Control Pad to move the cursor up and down. Press right or left to scroll through the variables, such as the Easy, Medium and Hard difficulty levels. You may also choose the number of lives, up to five, you can lose before having to continue. You can customize the Control Pad, but keep in mind that all the directions in this manual are given for the Normal Mode (default setting).

CONTINUING & ADDING A PLAYER

You may continue only three times after losing all your lives. When playing solo, a second player may join in any time by pressing Start on Controller 2.

POWER STOCK

Using Special Moves requires Power Points. Although you only start out with five, you can earn a supply of up to 20.

SUPER HEROES

Before each Stage, you'll choose one of three heroes, each with unique strengths. Remember, the Button combinations described are in the default configuration.

SONIC BLAST MAN

Although Sonic Blast Man hails from the planet Sonic Blast, where he received the Power Gloves, he is quite devoted to protecting the people of Earth. The game's namesake is an excellent choice for the beginning player, as he is the most balanced of the three fighters in terms of speed and strength. Because of the extra powerful protection he wears on his hands, it's best to stick with punches—a simple yet effective attack.

SONIA

Sonia and Sonic Blast Man have a history together that dates back to their childhood on Sonic Blast. There, Sonia practiced long and hard to become a kicking queen. Her perseverance paid off, and she received the Power Shoes and Super Hero status. Although her power is less than the others, she is the fastest.
